Philipsburg, St. Maarten

There are more than a few must-see locations on St. Maarten. Famously, St. Maarten is known for its Maho Bay where tourists can experience the thrill of jet blasts from planes taking off just over the sandy beach. Other places of interest include the clothing optional and gorgeous Orient beach, the French side's flea markets in Marigot, and Philipsburg filled with shopping and a variety of restaurants. With over 20 beaches, St. Maarten is a sun lover's paradise perfect for the vacationer looking for adventure.

San Juan, Puerto Rico

San Juan is Puerto Rico's capital and largest city. It attracts tourists from around the world because of its climate (an average daily temperature of 80 degrees) and its bars, nightclubs, beaches and casinos. Many historical buildings, monuments, and fortresses dating back to the 16th century are still in existence today. Be sure to get to know the locals; Puerto Ricans are known for their warm and friendly personalities.
